

NatureAlaska Tours presents the REAL Alaska ...through the eyes of REAL Alaskans

Northern Lights, Landscapes & Lifestyles Fairbanks, Alaska, March 15 – 21, 2006

ENJOY winter fun & adventure with Dan Wetzel, an Alaskan since 1967, veteran wilderness guide, arctic naturalist and breeder of award winning racing sled dogs.

WATCH for brightest northern lights in North America.

SOAK in healing waters of world famous hot springs.

SLEEP in Moose Lodge & EXPLORE Aurora Ice Museum

PHOTOGRAPH World Championship Ice Art sculptures.

CHEER the world's fastest sled dogs

RIDE with the toughest dog teams in Alaska

FLY over the Yukon River and beyond Arctic Circle.

LEARN from world renowned arctic scientists

Your trip includes:

Attendance to internationally acclaimed World Ice Art Championships * Winter activities and lodging at Chena Hot Springs Resort * Chena Kennel tour * Visit world-renowned University of Alaska's Museum of North and Geophysical Institute * Northern Lights viewing * optional bush flight to Athabaskan Indian community of Fort Yukon, on the banks of the Yukon River above the Arctic Circle * Alaska Bird Observatory * Open North American Championship Sled Dog Race * dog mushing with your own dog team * Alaskan cuisine, shopping, natural history, friendly northern hospitality and more!

For information or reservations call Dan Wetzel, NatureAlaska Tours at (907) 488-3746 or write dwetzel@alaska.net